

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Margaret A Althoff, Attorney at Law Establishes Private Practice

Fort Collins, Colorado – Margaret A Althoff, Esq. established a new law practice focusing exclusively on Estates, Wills, and Trusts effective July 6, 2005. She will apply 5 years experience in the complex field of large estates and wealth preservation gained at a leading Fort Collins Law Firm for her existing and expanding client base.

“Estate planning is not just wills and tax planning. It is financial, retirement, business succession, charitable, medical, disability, legacy, and gift planning.” Said Ms Althoff. “It takes a focused effort to remain proficient in this ever changing field of law”.

Margaret Althoff graduated from CSU with an undergraduate degree in engineering. She earned her Juris Doctorate from CU in 1990 with Order of the Coif honors. She first practiced with Holland and Hart in Denver. Then Ms Althoff relocated and practiced with Fischer, Brown, & Gunn of Fort Collins where she had the opportunity to study under Northern Colorado’s most prominent estate planning attorney.

“My engineering background makes me highly qualified to service the large technical population in this area.” Said Ms Althoff. “And with my childhood roots originating from Greeley, I hope to spend some time each week in that city too.”

Margaret Althoff may be reached in Fort Collins at 970-223-5913 or in Greeley at 1-877-726-0344. Email contact is available at margaret@althoff-law.com
